

How engaged are your elected officials with regards to your cyber security efforts?

17% Very engaged

54% Somewhat engaged

29% Not engaged

Does your local government have a cyber security plan designed to protect government information systems from attack and provide steps for recovery in case of attack?

75% YES

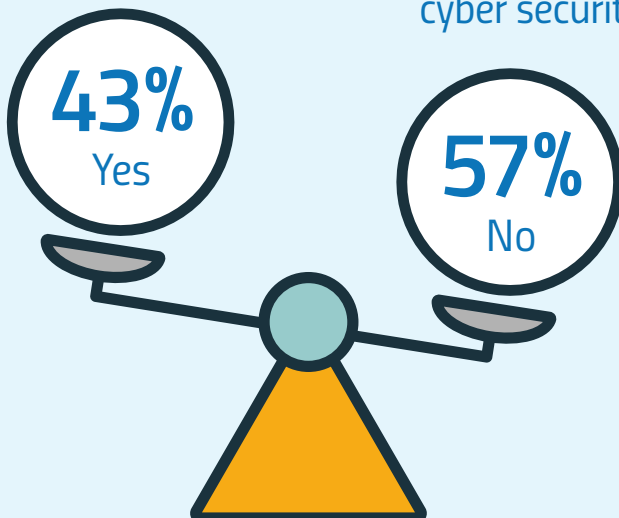

25% NO

If yes, when was this plan last reviewed?

68% of respondents (local governments) have reviewed their cyber security plan within the last year.

Do you feel that your community's elected officials make cyber security an adequate budgetary and policy priority?

Only 33% of respondents state that their cyber security budget is adequate.

67% of respondents state that their cyber security budget is inadequate.